

I do not wish to recieve calls from the banks that are want to weaken the law set forth by the state of Indiana. I believe the banks should spend more time retaining their own customers then spending time and energy on generating new ones.